

Blessings

We pray for blessings, we pray for peace
Comfort for family, protection while we sleep
We pray for healing, to meet our needs
We pray for Your mighty hand, to ease our suffering

And all the while, You hear each spoken need
You love us way too much, to give us lesser things

What if Your blessings come through raindrops
What if Your healing comes through tears
What if a thousand sleepless nights, are what it takes to know You're near
What if trials of this life, are Your mercies in disguise

We pray for wisdom, Your voice to hear
We cry in sadness when, we cannot feel You near
We pray for mercy, to know Your love
As if every promise from, Your word is not enough

And all the while, You hear each desperate plea
And long that we'd have faith to believe

What if Your blessings come through raindrops
What if Your healing comes through tears
What if a thousand sleepless nights, are what it takes to know You're near
What if trials of this life, are Your mercies in disguise

When friends betray us, when darkness seems to win we know
The pain reminds this heart that, this is not, this is not our home

What if Your blessings come through raindrops
What if Your healing comes through tears
What if a thousand sleepless nights, are what it takes to know You're near

What if my greatest disappointments, or the aching of this life
Is the revealing of a greater thirst, this world can't satisfy
And what if trials of this life...
The rain the storms, the hardest nights...
What if these trials in my life, are Your mercies in disguise
