

Mountain of Yah by Third Day

I thought that I was all alone, broken and afraid
But You were there with me, You were there with me.
I didn't even really know, That I had lost my way
But You were there with me, You were there with me.

'Til You opened up my eyes I never knew,
That I couldn't ever make it without You.

Even though the journey's long, and I know the road is hard,
Well the One who's gone before me, He will help me carry on.
After all that I've been through, now I realize the truth,
That I must go through the valley, to stand upon the mountain of Yah.

As I travel on the narrow way, That You have lead me down
You are here with me, You are here with me.
And I have the need for nothing more, oh now that I have found
That You are here with me, You are here with me.

I confess from time to time I lose my way,
But You're always there to bring me back again.

Even though the journey's long, and I know the road is hard,
Well the One who's gone before me, He will help me carry on.
After all that I've been through, now I realize the truth,
That I must go through the valley, to stand upon the mountain of Yah.

Sometimes I think of where I've come from,
And the things I've left behind.
But of all I've had what I possessed nothing can quite compare,
With what's in front of me, what's in front of me.

Even though the journey's long, and I know the road is hard,
Well the One who's gone before me, He will help me carry on.
After all that I've been through, now I realize the truth.

That I must go through the valley, To stand upon the mountain,
I must go through the valley, To stand upon the mountain,
I must go through the valley, To stand upon the mountain.

pause

I thought that I was all alone, broken and afraid
but You are here with me, yes You are here with me.
